The last bid at an auction is an oral contact and is legally binding. All sales are final. Payment is expected on date of purchase, unless prior arrangements have been made with the Sale Office. Payments not received within 30 days will incur a monthly 2% late payment fee. Failure to make final payments with 90 days may result in buyer being disqualified from future Hancock County Jr. Fair Livestock Auctions. Auctioneer is acting as seller agent. The Auctioneer's decision is final. Home purchase of Livestock is "as is".
